

Janice has always been a self-sufficient woman. She has been in the center before but has checked herself out many times due to this. She recently fell down a flight of stairs in her home. Thankfully due to the type of house she lives in her neighbor heard the fall and was able to get assistance for her. She is now forced to make her stay at the senior citizens home a bit more permanent, in fear that something like that happening again, but this time with no one being close by to help her or to hear her screams.
